Revoke pact with PPA, landowners ask gov

REMARKS: CITY-LANDOWNERS ARE here of a 40-acre property have been asked Gov. Vito Marcos-Senior to study a 2000 memorandum of understanding
(MOU) between the national government

Provincial administrator Victor Reyes and Renda was talking to the plan of the previous provincial administrations to develop the area into a major port and development.

In their letter, Tolstoyev said his landowners tried for years but failed to meet with the government since July 20.

On Aug. 13, Porto's representatives, political legal officers Joel Sikamoko, Nellye and with them and advised them that the government would have a solution "within two weeks."

It was signed on July 11, 2000 by then President Maximilien de Merode, general manager of Swiss Gas, and will expire next year.

Under the MOU, the province would acquire the land and shoulder cost of improvements for road development, while the FPN would construct, develop and maintain Phase 1 of the port.

LEONAR TORRES ACCURATE TO POINTS in the final 4:56 last night to keep Magallon's 49.75 victory over Cam-

Cola last night in the final PNB
Philippine Cup elimination at the Araneta Coliseum.

Torres' victory gave Magallon the 70-61 lead and bounce back from a defeat to Perdomo in the first round in 2011.

Cam-Cola, after opening up with an 88-76 decision of 19:00 last Oct. 15, went down for the second straight night.

"He just could not, we're struggling," said coach JACK Thompson. "He's still looking for ways to give everyone missions."

His tactics held it together for a full game and finally won close, piping 74-70, 47-47, in the second game.
The Rockets improved to 1-2 while

Tall 71 Team dropped to 2-2.

HSBC economist says RP fiscal reforms in peril

By David C. Donlin

THE POLITICAL SCANDALS ROCKING THE PHILIPPINES COULD curb the government's fiscal reform momentum and dash hopes of any sovereign credit-rating upgrade anytime soon, an economist from British banking giant HSBC has warned.

"Recent political events will make it harder for the President to advance a new wave of policy reforms, especially relating to improving the underlying public sector finances," HSBC regional economist Paul J. Brannan said in a commentary dated Oct. 15.

Despite a disappointing tax revenue growth, the Hong Kong-based economist said the government was now chasing its 2010 full-year deficit target of 26.5 billion, far exceeding privatization receipts, he pointed out. But the government's fiscal performance was "less impressive," suggesting that more reforms were needed.

Automatic expenditure plans and drug policy tax collection were likely to keep the budget in deficit for the foreseeable future, Brannan predicted.

The government has made a commitment to keep its 2010 budget deficit within

Consumer prices remain stable despite oil spike

By Noriel W. Domingo

THE SPIKE IN WORLD PRICES OF oil should not cause increase in the prices of basic goods, according to the National Price Coordinating Council.

However, Trade Undersecretary Corina C. Maglaya said there was also fear among producers and wholesalers that prices would remain at current levels.

Based on CTE documents, the price of staples should generally be at about P1.20 a kilo, pork at P1.40 a kilo and fish at P1.10 a kilo.

"Prices of processed and manufactured commodities such as textiles, meat and instant noodles remained the same," Maglaya said, citing results of the August market monitoring.

"We got assurance from officials of the National Bureau of Statistics that there would be no price increase until the Christmas season," she added, referring to the NBN's meeting held last Friday.

Maglaya added that officials of the United Fruit Producers Association agreed to maintain a stable supply of chickenpox in the holiday season because of the risk of their competitors.

She said a decrease in prevailing prices of vegetables was also noted compared to mid-October prices, an exception for the stable price of tomatoes due to the rainy season.

As for sugar, prices are expected to rise in the near term because of an increase in domestic supply.

On the other hand, prices of rice went up 15.4 percent from P48.8 a bag in September to a range of P55.2 to P56.0.

Maglaya said the increase was due to an increase in the price of wheat—a major component in making ing flour—due to a decline in production caused by heavy rain and moisture throughout in Eastern Europe and North Africa.

"The price of wheat is still high and we can see that our buyers are no longer able to buy," Maglaya said.

"We're looking at increasing the volume of imports through Philippine International Trading Corp.," she said.

"We will be working with importers of flour to be able to use the PFC line."

Maglaya added that the CTE would continue to strictly monitor prices of other commodities and predicted problems that would take advantage of higher prices.

Subsidies to state firms hit P15.5B

By Michelle K. Nery

THE NATIONAL government spent P15.5 billion in the last nine months of the year to subsidize its financially distressed state-owned firms, a 60-percent jump from only P9.5 billion in the same period a year ago.

Of the total value, then, P6.34 billion went to government financial institutions (GFIs), while P9.16 billion was granted to government-owned and -controlled corporations (GOCCs), the statistics from the Department of Finance showed.

In September alone, subsidies reached P1.02 billion, a 40-percent up from P677 million in the same month last year.

Subsidies are provided by the nation's government to state-owned firms that need extra help to stay afloat.

The rise in subsidies is

Splash sees 41% jump in '07 profit to P282M

By Elizabeth Sanchez-Lacson

PERSONAL CARE PRODUCTS Splish Group Inc. and its subsidiaries saw sales soar 41.9 percent, bringing it closer to its full-year target of P2.9 billion, after its latest quarter beat analyst estimates.

Full-year net sales are expected to grow 35 percent, with 13 non-pollutant launches seen to contribute 14.5 percent of that growth.

Historically, Maximum and the fourth quarter was a strong period for Splish, contributing P1 billion worth of net sales.

It added that the net income could go as high as P160 million this year, up 31 percent from the previous year level.

Splash said Nalanda Hinojosa and the company are spending between P800 million and P1.2 billion for two to three possible brand acquisitions in further plans of the company.

Splash plans to raise between P1.34 billion and P2.8 billion from a public offering that will start on Nov. 5. The offer price range is between P12 and P15, while the listing date is tentatively set for Nov. 15.

The offering will consist of 222.85 million shares at between P26.78 and P11.38 each.

Of the total public offer, 188.85 million will consist of new shares and 35 million shares will comprise existing shares to be offered by Splish Holdings Inc., a 100-percent owned investment company of Splish. Group Executive Nalanda Hinojosa and his wife Nalanda Ang Hinojosa.

50 Capital Investment Corp. and First Metro Investment Corp. have been named as the lead underwriters for the planned listing.

Established in 1995, Splish has grown from a P12,800 backyard business into a P4-billion enterprise that has established market presence in more than 26 countries in Asia, the Middle East and North America.

PSEi forecast to hit 4,200 by June 2008

ONLINE BROKER CITICORP Inc. has issued its target for the main stock benchmark, the Philippine Stock Exchange Index (PSEi), at 4,200 by June 2008 from 3,400 in higher liquidity flows and low interest rates, increase investor appetite, CiticorpOnline.com said in a recent briefing.

The brokerage said liquidity conditions—or the ability to convert shares into cash—have started to revitalize both globally and domestically, pumped up by a 30-basis-point cut by the US Federal Reserve in August and a subsequent local interest rate cut by 25 basis points by the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas.

CiticorpOnline added that the weak economic outlook in the US and its improving local fiscal position, low inflation and a strong peso were expected to dampen any tightening of monetary conditions.

It said even liquidity was also expected to flow into Asia as a result of greater domestic product (GDP) growth by the next two years, was expected to reach 7.5 percent, much faster than developed countries' GDP growth of below 1 percent.

In the Philippines, the government expects GDP growth to reach 6.7-7.4 percent in 2006 and 7.4 percent in 2009, driven by higher government spending, rising investments and consumer spending.

CiticorpOnline also said that a slowdown in the US economy would have a small impact on the Philippines since exports to the US now accounted for 17 percent of total exports, down from a high of 40 percent in 2002.

A US slowdown could, however, impact more on remittances from overseas Filipinos working in the US, which constitute 10 percent of GDP, according to the US Commerce Dept. for annual half of total remittances to the country (USDI). The annual impact on consumer spending would be substantial.

It is given that OFW remittances from the US account for only around 7.7 percent of total consumer spending. "It may be offset," it said.

The broker also said that increasing employment, especially locally, driven by the strong demand from the business process outsourcing sector, rising investments and the increasing availability of cheap and affordable credit should continue to fuel total consumer spending.

However, CiticorpOnline said that the US index target such as rising commodity prices for food and oil, monetary policy tightening and an overall negative "credit crunch" similar to the US, will pose a market problem.

Rising inflation could prompt monetary authorities to raise interest rates, which will negatively impact on market liquidity.

"Nevertheless, Asian economies are less vulnerable to rising commodity prices given their strong industrialized status to the US dollar," it said.

It also said that monetary tightening in the US likely will lead to a strong peso and a strong peso and a strong peso will lead to a strong peso and a strong peso will lead to a strong peso.

Competition among banks still tough, study shows

By Davis C. Dierker

Despite M&As, level of market concentration relatively low

COMPETITION AMONG PHILIPPINE banks remains still despite the decline in the number of banks as a result of big mergers and acquisitions, a Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) study indicated.

In its report on the financial system's condition in 2008, the BSP said it had witnessed a steady rise in the competitive situation of the domestic financial and commercial banking industry to some the likely impact of recent bank mergers on the industry.

The study revealed that the level of current market concentration in the commercial banking system is still relatively low, both in terms of assets and deposits, thereby indicating a generally competitive market, the BSP said.

The central bank's report was based on developments in the industry during which the local bank merger between Philippine National Bank and Union Bank of Philippines was consummated.

Prior to this deal, other big mergers were completed, such as those between Bank of the Philippine Islands and Prudential Bank, and Citicorp Bank of the Philippines and International Exchange Bank.

The BSP said the overall bank structure in the country was skewed by 13 reporting banks to 60% or of total bank assets 1 year ago.

"The changing banking landscape driven by the growing importance of financial markets and large investment outlays is going to see technology prompted banks operating in larger market size, better competitive advantage, higher profit and overall strategic focus to remain," the BSP said.

The report and the banking sector was in a much better position to face the challenges of a rapidly changing global financial environment.

The BSP admitted that the overall performance for the first semester may be modest compared to international standards but noted that it will improve the notable improvement in banks' balance sheet on account of minimum assets drawn against capital adequacy.

The findings indicated more improvement during the semester to review and highly indication of banks' efficient administration of persistent revenue streams, the report said.

During the review period, the BSP said there were 30 opening national and commercial banks with 4,250 branches, 50 credit unions with 1,350 branches and 737 rural and cooperative banks with 1,071 branches as of June 2009.

The BSP said the banking industry's performance was well above the international standard of 8 percent on account of increased capital raising activities of banks in year of the global economic crisis. The study 2 capital adequacy requirement of 10 percent.

Asset coverings in the commercial banking sector, the BSP reported, are not below a safe level by 1.54 percent. The BSP said the ratio is well above the international standard of 100 percent.

Nissan seen boosting RP, India operations

By Ronald W. Dominguez

TERA, GTR, XTR—AUTO maker Nissan is ramping up its Philippine facilities and a global drive to build vehicles aimed at lower-income markets in Asia and rest of the world, company officials said.

Nissan Motors, Nissan Motor Co. Ltd. corporate vice president, said in an interview that the firm's commercial programs in the Philippines are being rolled out in other parts of the world, especially as it attempts to rebuild its high commercial vehicle business.

"In 2002, we were almost out of the SUV business and (since then) we have been working to rebuild our truck and van globally," said Palmer, who is responsible for Nissan's LCV business in Asia.

"We want to get stronger in Asia because that is not our core market. In Asia, we have no real viable future and where growing markets like the Philippines," he added.

Palmer said Nissan was currently working on a new LCV model, the NV 300 van, which it will release in 2011. He said the model would most likely end up in the Philippines market.

"We are currently working on a new LCV model, the NV 300 van, which it will release in 2011. He said the model would most likely end up in the Philippines market."

CMC, one of Nissan's main

Philippine dealer, is focused on pickup and van while Nissan Motor Philippines Inc. is into the assembly of passenger cars.

"Our focus plan represents a clear intent to do more than what we are doing now both in the production and marketing aspects," Palmer said.

The Tokyo-based official also said Nissan's marketing approach of positioning the Nissan as a multipurpose van vehicle that satisfies the needs of the business and the family of workers. Filipino workers, he said, are for small businesses.

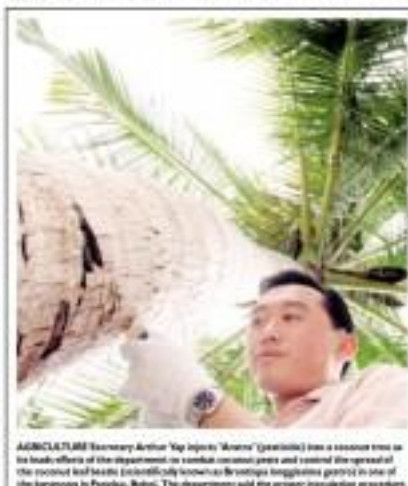

"We are expanding globally what (Nissan) has been doing in the Philippines and (Nissan) is a kind of benchmark," Palmer said.

Palmer said he was keeping tabs on the Philippine contracting site, with a population of at least 10 million and its recent economic growth of about 7 percent, presented a big market potential.

"Usually when the economy is growing at that rate, people are buying more LCVs which gives us a good market," he said.

In a separate interview, Colin Dodge, Nissan senior vice president for global commercial sales, said Nissan production plants in Laguna have "a very bright prospect."

"We intend to develop the competitiveness of (the Philippines) plants first to cost, very good," Dodge said. "The Philippines is today one of our LCV manufacturing bases in the world."

DA eyes partnership with Del Monte

THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE is talks with Del Monte Philippines for a possible partnership for the supply of rice seedlings to the DA's rice seedling project in the Philippines.

Agriculture Secretary Arthur L. Yap said the DA was seeking the company to supply rice seedlings to the DA's rice seedling project in the Philippines.

Yap said the DA was seeking the company to supply rice seedlings to the DA's rice seedling project in the Philippines.

Yap said the DA was seeking the company to supply rice seedlings to the DA's rice seedling project in the Philippines.

According to Del Monte Philippines manager Thomas Jimenez, the firm is now studying the terms of the agreement and is waiting, something that is important to the DA.

"The initial plan is to supply a minimum of 100,000 seedlings a week to the DA's rice seedling project in the Philippines," Jimenez said.

According to Jimenez, Del Monte is shipping rice seedlings to the DA's rice seedling project in the Philippines.

Yap said he believed that this partnership with Del Monte would help bring down the price of rice seedlings in the Philippines.

Stella Rojas' tender communions

By Jessica (Jannet) Rotillas
 Contributor

IN FRANCE, ONLY THE ruins of English King Richard I were enough to earn the title of Count de Lion or Lion Heart. He inspired French monarch Philip II who sought to regain French territories in the 12th century.

The night has been chosen by Stella Rojas as one of her numerous subjects in her latest show, "Tender Communion," in Gallery Three at the ArtWalk in Megamall (Oct. 29-30/08).

As often as the count, Rojas has off to France where she paints what she sees, or takes photographs to inspire her paintings. The affinity with the count is not surprising—the sun,

Praico and Obemio in visual duet

"PLAY" by Noel Obemio

BRUNDA PRADCO AND NOEL OBEMIO PRESENT THEIR "Second Studio" at the Library Hall of U of C College to Students, Kumbia in Global City Tagaytay.

Pradco's style of architectural design in the city and Obemio's consistent eye light and drawing subjects in abstract make for a subtle visual contemplation. Brunda Pradco is a graduate of University of the South and Noel Obemio is a graduate of the East Rock University in Painting.

Delicious murals

SEVERAL IS ONE OF THE OLDEST and most colorful of forms in human art, with some of its earliest examples found back in prehistoric times. Murals and frescoes are accepted as forms that can be found everywhere in between that are said to have painting.

The mural painting the walls of Cebu's old, almost abandoned, wooden houses, has provided the venue with a tradition of using delicious Filipino colors not to be easily forgotten.

The movement has chosen an artistic approach to revive the single dimensionality of the mural painting.

Discover with an all-Pinoy treat Greenwich's Pizza Pinoy

Pinoy's simply just love to eat. It's amazing how we can readily satisfy our craving however far-fetched it may be. Sometimes we can be so crazy that we take that long drive just to have a tasty bite or carefully plan our weekend activities just to try the specialty of some new restaurant. On occasions when we are left at home, we do not hesitate at the challenge of making innovations of our favorite dishes.

Truly aware of the vibrant Filipino palate, Greenwich recently captured that essence with the new Pizza Pinoy, a delectable feast that combines all-time-favorite Filipino meals of Vigan and Lucban Longganisa, Pampanga Tocino, chili fingers, mozzarella cheese, mushrooms, and onions, topped on Greenwich's new 9-inch garlic-flavored rolled-edge crust.

Known for its non-stop pizza innovation fused with a unique Pinoy twist, Greenwich is committed to offer the best-tasting pizza that suits the discriminating palate. Greenwich is confident that the new Pizza Pinoy will become an instant hit, especially for those who go for the distinct Filipino taste. Aside from offering the best to its diners, Greenwich certainly knows how to please royalty customers.

"Greenwich is committed to providing delicious pizza and pasta products that suit the tastes and preferences of the young working adults.

The Greenwich heritage of coming up with new, creative and innovative pizza has always been our driving force—starting from the Super Sisig Pizza, Red Egg Royale Pizza, Mango Fiesta ala Mode, down to its newest product, Pizza Pinoy," said Lulu De Castro, Greenwich Marketing Manager.

Pizza Pinoy certainly gives another new reason to rush to any of Greenwich's 245 stores. For delivery orders in Metro Manila, you can also call Greenwich Delivery at 5-55-55.

Regional art contest winners bared soon

PHILIPPINE PHILIPPINES manufacturing Inc. (PMP-100), sponsor of the Philippine Art Awards (PAA), is set to announce the first batch of winners from the regional art contest.

Starting this year, the PAA has been made much wider and greater as a reward, to attract more artists from the Philippines regional competitors.

The award winners are selected from each of the regional level competition. All of the 10 regional winners will then move on to compete in the national level competition in February 2010.

Each of the regional winners will receive P40,000 and a trophy.

For the national level, the grand prize winner will get P100,000 and five winners will each receive P20,000.

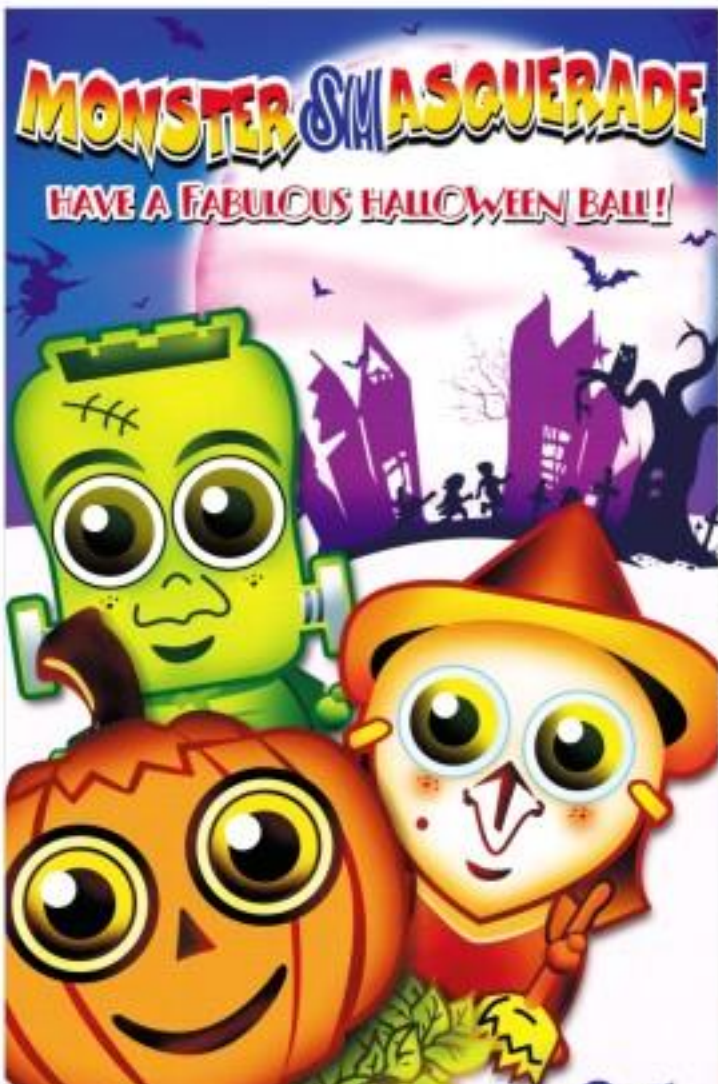

The national winners for 2009 will be moved to an all-expense paid trip to Manila, Vietnam, and other places for promoting art markets.

The consistent support of artists in our call of artists over the years, and the confidence in the creative judging process and museum standards offered in handling of their works, have resulted in the success of Philip Morris in our vision of art, says Philip Morris public affairs and communications manager Dave Santos.

All 10 winning works from Metro Manila and Luzon, which have been selected from a collection of about 400 entries by this year's two panels of judges, will be featured in a month-long exhibition at the National Museum.

Managing Director Chris Nelson says: "Philip Morris has supported the arts worldwide for the past 50 years. We are proud that in the Philippines, our company will continue to support the arts since we acknowledge that this is a unique way for us to define, express ourselves and to experience it. It is our commitment to introduce innovations to encourage Philippine artists to create the standard and quality of their art."

Now celebrating its 12th season, the Philippine Art Awards has maintained its status as one of the Philippine premier contemporary two-dimensional art competitions and exhibitions.

Vina Morales on love life: Wait and see

By Maribel Cruz

ABOUT THE THREE OF HER relationship with Chinese business mogul Goh Liu, Vina Morales says she is enjoying every second of it.

"There are still a lot of questions that I want answered," she tells business correspondent of the launch of her new love drama album, "Sagabalahan." But, she adds, "If you're asking if we're happy and in love, the answer is yes—very, very."

In March, Vina announced the new break-up with Goh on the show his talk program "The Rules." She said the relationship had become "very complicated."

Within days, Goh's marriage has yet to be revealed. He and his wife Judy have two kids, aged 13 and 6.

Now, Vina says, she's waiting for someone other than her ex-husband.

She is confident about where she stands. "I don't look at it as a big problem. I'd rather concentrate on my career—and it's been going well lately," she notes.

Vina recently won the Asian Music award competition held in Kuala Lumpur. She brought home the first Asia Performance trophy (a $25,000 in cash, a recording contract) and career bookings allows her to sign.

"It's beautiful that my fans are proud about my career than my love life. That's really my personal life, okay long story," she says.

"Sagabalahan" is a romantic album co-produced by Ruel M. and Star Records, and features 14 songs written and composed by Vina herself. Apart from Vina, the other artists are Gerald Anderson, Gabriel Valdez, Jane, Jay Villano, Iyng Francis, Naya Ayala and Mickey Free, Gary Gato, Paul Gato, and "Sagabalahan" All Stars, Ultimate Dance Band and others.

Safe, sound and southbound.

On the way to the South for a roadtrip? Prepare for a safe, reliable and enjoyable journey all the way to your destination. With a little help from Caltex, the Philippine National Construction Corporation (PNCC) and its partners, going south will now be more secure, convenient and fun for you and your family.

Of industry leader Caltex and PNCC will team up to launch Ka-Road Trip Mo sa Kalagitnaan, a project that will provide motorists going through the South Coast Expressway (SCEX) on their journey. Interested in a year-long program, Ka-Road Trip will surely be a traveler's best friend on and off the road as it covers motorist assistance, public awareness on road safety and a Caltex pickup stations that will surely be a relief for weary travelers.

As you travel southbound this long holiday period, you will notice that being safe doesn't have to be boring. You can have fun while getting the point that safety is important. Now we'll find highway safety messages along the SCEX route such as "Safe going home for a while. Drive Safely."

Or how about this line, "Young girls imagine, South is my future!" "Drive Safely, Kalagitnaan." PNCC and Caltex, both proponents of safety on and off the road, are looking forward to a trouble-free, accident-free road trip for motorists.

Ka-Road Trip 2007 will kick off with a Pre-Departure Campaign on October 27 to 28, focusing on the road to prepare and check the maintenance and safety vehicle to be used for the road trip. Also, selected Caltex stations in Metro Manila and nearby provinces will be conducting campaigning and offering their FREE Car Maintenance Check-Up. There's a safety lot at the front that you, as an important driver, should check before going on your journey.

Must-check for your car:

Item to check	Checklist
Engine	Oil level
Brakes	Brake pads
Wheels and tires	Tire pressure
Lighting system	Headlights
Exhaust system	Exhaust pipe
Fluid levels	Water level
Other items	Other items

These safety checks can be availed at the following Caltex pickup stations:

And for the peak travel period, to clear the clearance of All Saints' Day from late October to early November, when heavy traffic with slow motion of motor vehicles is expected, travelers who intend to fly SCEX on October 31 to November 4 will get a shot at a safe and fun-filled journey through a series of travel time safety checks that will surely help them on the long drive ahead.

Travel Time Safety Services

Caltex and PNCC will also provide free emergency assistance during peak hours, particularly on October 27 to November 4. The two companies will coordinate with other agencies such as the Philippine National Red Cross, Metrosearch and SA Philippines in setting up service facilities and kiosks where medical, towing and mechanical assistance will be provided for stranded motorists.

Recreational Activities

Ka-Road Trip is made more more special by the Caltex-PNCC recreation kiosks at the SCEX Caltex stations. Caltex will set up various kiosks and facilities where motorists can relax and spend their time. Games and prizes from the Star Mart convenience stores. To top it all off, visiting motorists will also get to participate in fun games, some of which are inspired by the Caltex-Kalika Cebu game. And for a limited period, selected toll booth tollers will be giving away coupons that will enable the motorists to receive movies from the new top SCEX Caltex stations.

Also, GEs will also be setting up their own "Barney's Bay" kiosks at the SCEX Caltex stations to provide the motorists with a safe and fun experience by providing the motorists.

With Caltex, PNCC and your travel plans all set, it's time to go on your drive home for All Saints' Day home. And of the two pre-departure services now and get ready to go southbound safe and sound to no time.

What Drives You

Having a safe and secure roadtrip

Buckle up and get ready to enjoy the road trip this coming holiday season. Caltex and the PNCC come together to ensure that you reach your destination safely through their Motorist Assistance Program called "Ka-Road Trip Mo sa Kalagitnaan". You can be sure to have your friendly Red Cross volunteers and the EA Philippines' towing assistance service with their reliable mechanics on duty. And if you happen to pass by a Caltex station at SCEX, your favorite Star Mart convenience store is there to give you a hassle-free pitstop for your favorite goodies and, if you're lucky, some freebies!
